

Breakfast Menu

Good morning and welcome to Breakfast
at Tween Waters Inn

The Captiva House traces its origins to the year 1914, when John Dickey and his family — among the first people to call Captiva Island home — built a one-room schoolhouse, for his children and their teacher. Some 11 years later, a man named Bowman Price from North Carolina purchased the schoolhouse and, with his wife opened Tween Waters Inn as a dining hall for visiting fisherman.

While time has brought expansions and improvements, the Captiva House today remains as true to its heritage as possible, and has been recognized by Lee County Florida as a historically significant site (as have many of our seaside cottages).

The Captiva House promises you the highest level of freshness, quality, taste, service and satisfaction.

Welcome and enjoy!
